Product Description

Doll house with wallpapers, miniature

The first Reutter dollhouse, first released as part of the collector's subscription of the N. Metz collector's gallery and published in the August issue of 1:12 miniatures magazine. Get this exquisite piece of furniture and let your imagination run wild decorating your own dream home.

The ideal gift for lovers of dollhouses of every age.

The house is not furnished and can be decorated to your taste with the high quality furniture and decorative accessories of Reutter Porzellan. The house comes with two sets of wallpaper and floor coverings. The cutting lines are already marked for you.

The roof and faade can be removed for better access. Thanks to a stable support, the house can be attached to a wall like a picture, since it is only about 20 cm deep. Depending on your preferences, it can also be set up as a show object.

The ideal dollhouse for beginners and miniature collectors.

Make yourself happy with your "own house".
