Product Description

Brück & Sohn Kunstverlag - Advent calendar "Pillnitz"

The beautiful castle Pillnitz on the Elbe belongs to Dresden today. August the Strong built and expanded the Pillnitz castle from 1720 in Baroque style. In the center of the three palace buildings of the Pillnitz castle you will find an impressive Baroque pleasure garden, which August the strong and the owners of castle Pillnitz, used for festivals. Everything is open to the public today. Everything is open to the public today. This Advent calendar shows the water palace with its oriental roofs and cornices, which were very popular in the baroque times.

On the front side of the advent calendar of Brück & Sohn, the artist has wonderfully added the three wise men from the East, from the biblical Christmas story, into the oriental impression of the Pillnitz castle. A magical advent calendar has been created with 24 Christmas and Pillnitz surprise pictures behind the windows.
