Product Description

Advent calendar "Weimar"

Weimar is an independent town in Thuringia and has been officially designated as a university town since 2004. In addition to the Bauhaus University, Weimar hosts the Liszt School of Music. In 1998 "Classical Weimar" was declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. On this Advent calendar, the German National Theater Weimar with the Goethe and Schiller monument can be seen. From November to January, Theaterplatz transforms into an ice rink, inviting young and old to ice-skate. The Weimar Christmas Market frames the whole flair.

The ice spectacle in front of the National Theater in Weimar gave us the opportunity to paint an advent calendar about it. The pictures behind the doors are very well selected and could be located exactly at this point. Let yourself be transported into the charming world of this beautiful advent calendar "Weimar".
