Product Description

PRISMA Jewelry Stand Pyramid, brass

Designed after our popular Prisma photo frames, the Prisma jewelry stand is a stylish way to store and display your favorite jewelry. Its pyramid shape is made of filigree metal struts.

The cross braces on the top are ideal for storing necklaces of any length. This piece makes excellent use of vertical space for storing accessories, but also can add a dynamic layer of height to a collection of decorative items on your vanity, countertop or dresser top.

Prisma's linen base doubles as storage for smaller items like earrings and rings, functioning as a tray. Its linen fabric is gentle on jewelry and prevents it from moving around when placed on the base.

Prisma's geometric-shaped and brass-plated wire, will show off your jewelry from all angles.
