Product Description

Advent calendar "Jena"

The Jena Advent calendar was painted by a very old lady. She was very ill and enjoyed painting. Her special painting style is very popular with the fans of Brück & Sohn. The carefully arranged windows fit well into the architecture of the picture, so the beauty of the motif is preserved, even if all the windows are open. Jena is located on the Saale in beautiful Thuringia.

Today's Friedrich Schiller University was founded in 1558. Carl Zeiss developed Jena into an important location for optics and precision mechanics. Today Jena is a city of science. Brück & Sohn's Advent calendar motif shows the beautiful late- and neo-Gothic building ensemble of the city museum on Jena's market square.
