Product Description

Even the prettiest plants have to work hard to steal the show from AGNES. Ultra-graceful design and function perfectly combined: with the body for 1.2l content, the extra-long spout reaches even the most remote corner.

The narrow, extra-long spout allows for slow pouring and is easy to control to prevent over-pouring. The long spout easily reaches below the leaves to direct water directly into the soil without missing a beat.

Durable and beautiful - Made from high quality solid stainless steel, guarantees quality and long life. This AGNES watering can will remain a faithful companion for years.

The organic design is stylish and elegant and can be used anywhere in the house as a decorative object. Ideal for those who hardly have any plants or flowers.

Caution! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
