Product Description

This NeXtime "Oxford" wall clock (50cm) radiates farmhouse elegance with robust details; the double metal rings make the clock stand out further. This clock has a beautiful light brown and off white linear pattern on the dial, and a set of classic black hands. Each clock face is unique reflecting the grain of the wood it was made from. The bold metal index allows you to read time with ease, even across the room. This clock is silent and runs on 1x AA battery (not included).
