Product Description

gie el - Clock TOWER rust

The original standing clock. Unusual decoration of the living room or office. The asymmetrical form combined with the rusty surface of the clock will give it an industrial character. It was made of a steel form bent into a geometric form. Powered by one AA battery that is not included in the kit. Perfect for loft and modern interiors. A simple, yet effective addition that will look great on a desk or dresser. Manufactured in Poland. Available in other colors.
