Product Description

Her life was marked by many strokes of fate and is probably one of the most famous love tragedies.

Elisabeth was born on Christmas Eve 1837 in Munich and grew up with numerous siblings at her country estate Schloss Possenhofen on Lake Starnberg.

At the age of 15, the young Elisabeth travelled to Austria with her mother and her sister Helene to be introduced to the future Emperor Franz Joseph.

Franz Joseph fell in love with Elisabeth and the two were married the following year. Less than a year after the wedding, Elisabeth gave birth to her first child at the age of 17, and three more followed.

Our porcelain collection includes a variety of different shapes and designs.

The careful workmanship and the detailed decorations give our porcelain the typical Reutter flair.

All of our porcelain pieces with gold decoration are hand-painted with 24 carat gold and fired at 800°C.

The dimensions refer to the miniature display case. Our porcelain/articles are delivered in high-quality gift packaging.

Attention! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
