Product Description

NOIR IS NOT A PROGRAMME. IT'S A PROMISE The asymmetrical look is by no means a coincidence, but rather deliberate. Creative freedom, away from the precisely measured uniform monotony. In addition, a marvellous pleated look, which is mainly responsible for the fascinating play of light on the surface. The glass vases, skilfully shaped by hand, are coated in matt black and form an exciting contrast to the bouquet of flowers. There is no question that vases are made for flowers. But even in the absence of floral elements, each vase causes a stir as a sculpture. CRAFTSMANSHIP AND SKILL The glass vases are by no means machine-made. No, they are blown into shape by real people. Matt black coating - an exciting contrast to the bouquet of flowers THICK AND THIN A feast for the eyes on their own, but a real treat when combined in pairs WITH AND WITHOUT There's no question that vases are made for flowers. But even in the absence of floral elements, each vase causes a stir as a sculpture
