Product Description

A large lorry with plenty of space on the loading area for sand or other items that need to be transported. The lorry also has a sluice mechanism for unloading the load. The lorry offers plenty of opportunities for imaginative role play and sensory stimulating explorations in nature with sand and water. It is also suitable for indoor play. Playing with the lorry develops the child's motor skills and hand-eye coordination when filling and emptying the load. The truck is a Danish-made toy from dantoy, made of bioplastic and available in fresh BIO colours. The recommended age group for this product is 2+ years.
