Product Description

This great plant growing set offers the opportunity to give free rein to green fingers and let lots of little plants sprout and grow. The set is suitable for playing and learning with live plants as well as with the corresponding play vegetables. The set contains plant labels that help to memorise what has been sown where. There is also a sheet of labels that the child can draw or write on and then stick onto the plant tags. This set offers great play value as it can be used for growing plants, as a pegging toy or as a play set. This toy can easily be expanded with other sets from the Green Garden series, all of which encourage outdoor play, learning and exploration. The Green Garden universe invites you to playfully engage in many of the everyday tasks associated with caring for a garden and vegetable garden. Discover together how the plants and colours of the garden change throughout the year. This plant growing set is a Danish-made toy from dantoy, made from plastic that carries the Nordic Ecolabel. The set consists of 54 pieces in the pretty, calm colours of Green Garden. The recommended age group for this product is 2+ years.
