Product Description

With this dantoy product from the Green Bean range, each set is unique and consists of a pot, a pan and a serving utensil. The product is made from leftovers from plastic production and has been awarded the Nordic Swan ecolabel. The recycling process creates beautiful colour nuances and random colour combinations so that no two sets look the same. This kitchen set invites you to play and learn and is perfect for indoors and outdoors. Green Bean toys are only produced in small quantities as they are made from leftover stock, which makes this range even more unique. The recycling process creates beautiful colour nuances and random colour combinations. The set consists of 7 pieces in unique colours. Suitable from 2 years, dishwasher safe.
