Product Description

DISK BY DISK WELL-BEING ATMOSPHERE Art Deco, Bauhaus, Cubism - ASCOLI harmoniously combines several avant-garde trends of classic modernism. The candle holder, which could easily have served as a prop for Fritz Lang's Metropolis, blends seamlessly into any technically architectural ambience. Its futuristic cylinder made of lead-free crystal glass with a titanium coating gives it an unmistakable industrial look and is at home in the city loft of old factory buildings, among other places. Things get a lot smoother as soon as ASCOLI is used as an alternative vase and decorated with cheerfully colourful individual flowers. - Material: Titanium-coated crystal glass- Weight: 2.20 kg- Length: 11 cm- Width: 11 cm- Height: 21 cm
